REFERENCE ALLOCATION

WHAT DOES THIS STRATEGY DO?

This strategy seeks to achieve close to long-term equity returns with a moderate level of risk. The historical reference allocation above shows how a portfolio has typically been constructed to achieve the stated risk and return figures. However, the risks and returns of different assets are not static over time and historical returns are not a guide to future returns. This strategy therefore uses Kleinwort Hambros' dynamic asset allocation to invest in a wider range of asset classes in response to changing market and economic conditions. The strategy's current indicative asset class ranges are detailed above, and may vary over time.

PERFORMANCE UPDATE

Over the quarter the portfolio returned 1.8% ahead of its ARC peer group which rose 1.2%. It was encouraging to see the strategy's strong performance continuing.

The portfolio's equity allocation was the principle driver of returns, though this was supported by the alternative exposure. Its bond positioning was a modest detractor.

Global equity markets continued in their upward trajectory, though this was less than previous quarters with the MSCI World returning 1.0%, though the US market was slightly stronger returning 1.3% in sterling terms. The portfolio's significant exposure to the US market was a major positive driver of returns, though this was supported by its European, emerging markets and UK allocations. In the US deciding to hedge part of the exposure to sterling added value as sterling rallied 7.9% against the US dollar. Loomis Sayles (+2.0%) also outperformed the S&P 500. Elsewhere Threadneedle UK (+6.1%), Fidelity Emerging Markets (+4.5%), Hermes Asia ex-Japan (+4.1%) and Blackrock Continental European Flexible (+4.3%) all added value.

The fixed income investments detracted over the quarter, impacted by the sell-off in government bonds, though this was partially offset by strong performances from the high yield and investment grade credit positions; UBAM Global High Yield (+2.5%) was worthy of mention. Our decision in the third quarter to increase duration in the government bond allocation detracted, as they sold off during the quarter.

Alternatives performed well, driven by the gold position which returned 3.0%, benefiting from being hedged to sterling. The trading strategies were overall modestly negative, offsetting some of this. The best performance came from Lyxor Tiedemann Arbitrage (+2.0%).

Over the quarter we only made one change, modestly increasing our US equity exposure, adding to the holding of iShares S&P 500 GBP Hedged, funded by a modest reduction in the government bond and cash positions.
